

The effect of laws over the last 2 years scare me that I no longer live in the America my forefathers dreamed of. Homeland security is another way to say spying on your neighbor. The passage of this law is another step in taking American's rights AWAY! Do not further the consolidation of corporate America!